Dear Macmillan class Parents/Carers

Year 6 SATs – Industrial Action

You will have heard in the media last week that the National Association of Headteachers (NAHT) have now balloted their members and have authorised headteachers to boycott this year's Year 6 SATs tests should they wish to do so. Mr Burns is a member of the NAHT.

However, I am delighted to confirm that Mr Burns has decided not to take any action this year and as such your child and the school will be unaffected by the industrial action. Both Mr Burns and myself agree that it would be very unfair to abandon the tests at this late stage given all the hard work the children have done preparing and revising for the tests. I am very grateful to Mr Burns for taking the decision he has done.

Yours sincerely

Mr Anthony Bennett
