

The Nest

The Nest is a place
Where comfort is...
Where troubles are aired
And tears are shed.

The Nest is a place
Where trust can be gained
Where secrets are shared
And help is at hand.

The Nest is a place
Where thoughts are released,
Where emotions are stored
And worries set free.

The Nest is a place
Where problems are heard
Where families speak out
And peace is restored

The Nest is a place
Where support is provided,
Where friendships are mended
And anger is quashed.

The Nest is a place
Where children can be...
Where fun is encouraged
And happiness reigns
